Dear Parents / Carers

It's been another week packed with the joy of reading.

On Wednesday Key Stage 2 children visited the cinema for a fun session with top author Maz Evans. Thursday we celebrated National Poetry Day and, with Coral Rumble as our Patron of Reading, we plan to champion poems throughout the year.

I'm not sure what has happened to time at the moment but we only have one week left until half term! Next Friday will be our Harvest Festival, unfortunately we can't invite parents to this event because of space in the hall. However, look out for events for parents after the break.

If you have any items for the Food Bank we would be very grateful if you could send them in with the children on Friday 13th.

Best wishes

Simon

Social Media

Please can we remind you not to post information about other pupils on any social media (including WhatsApp). This is not acceptable. Please remember, anyone that is admin for a WhatsApp group is responsible for comments posted in that group. If you have any concerns about another child or want to find out more about an incident please speak to your child's class teacher.

In the news this week

October is Black History Month in the UK. This year's theme is 'Saluting our Sisters' - highlighting the role Black women have played in shaping history, inspiring change, and building communities in the UK. Commemorations will feature Black women, who have made outstanding contributions to many areas including music, literature, fashion, sport, business, politics, and health care.

Friends of Carclaze

Preparations are well underway for our forthcoming Christmas Fair. If you are able to help on this day or the day/evening before please either email :

friendsofcarclazeschool@outlook.com, secretary@car.celtrust.org or by popping into the school office.

Two of the stalls at the Fair will be our usual Jolly Jam Jars and a Bottle Tombola. We will hold two non uniform days where children can come to school in normal clothes and bring in a filled jam jar (see example below) or a bottle (i.e. bottle of sauce, shampoo, bottle of squash etc) in recognition of this.

Jolly Jam Jars - Take an empty jam jar or jar of that nature and fill it with treats i.e. wrapped sweets, stationery, hair bands/clips, small toys etc. Decorate jar if you wish too.

At our next meeting on 11th October we will be processing the raffle tickets ready to go home to parents/carers. If you are able to help with this it will be very much appreciated. The more people to help the quicker we get it done! Feel free to bring your own drinks/nibbles.

Date of next meeting: Wednesday 11th October 2023 - 7pm (processing raffle tickets)

Non Uniform Day Jolly Jam Jars - Thursday 16th November

Non Uniform Day Bottles - Friday 24th November

Christmas Fair: Saturday 25th November 2023 - 1-3pm

The Big Ambition – Have your say!

The Children's Commissioner for England, Dame Rachel de Souza, has launched The Big Ambition, a national survey of children and young people across England.

The Big Ambition aims to hear from children across England on what they think is important! In the lead up to the next General Election, the Children's Commissioner wants to take children's thoughts, opinions and ideas to decision-makers, to make sure that the Government hears young people's voices on what they think needs to be done to make children's lives better in England.

The Big Ambition survey will be open until Friday 15th December.

Click here, or scan the QR code to complete the survey by Friday 15th December and make your voice heard!

Reminder:

Please can we remind parents that we are a 'nut free' school. Due to allergies of both other children and staff, please do not send any nut based products into school for snacks or lunches. Sadly, this does include some chocolate spreads and cereal bars etc

Many thanks

Parent Behaviour

We expect parents to demonstrate the good behaviour we want of our children. Unfortunately on a few occasions this week this has not been the case.

Please consider the following:

Parking

We have one of the biggest car parks of any school around but it is still tricky to fit everyone in. We are working on some solutions but in the meantime, please do not park on the paved area. Please consider parking a little further away and walking.

Speaking to the office staff

The staff in the office want to help. If you are feeling cross, worried or disappointed please do not shout or swear at them.

Parent disagreements

If another parent's actions upset you - for example their parking - please think about how you respond. Rather than shout and swear please report them to the office (with their registration number).

If you believe another child has hurt or upset your child please come and speak to a member of school staff so that we can find out the whole story. Do not send angry messages to the other child's parent online. This can be online abuse and will not solve a problem.

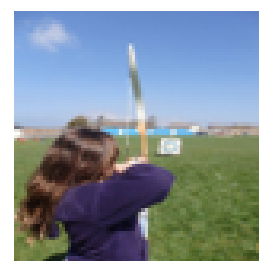

When we identify poor parent behaviour we will follow the policy that means issuing a warning and then, if it persists, banning parents from the school premises.
