

Weekly Project Planner Summer 2018

What does Summer bring?

Date	Outcomes	Skills/ content
Week 1 16th April Jack and the beanstalk story and classroom environment exploration	Jack and the bean stalk Wow introduction – children will receive magic bean parcel from Jack Castles, gardens and garden centre. Exploring class environment Story telling Role play	Communication and language skills through Role play and Story telling Comparing environments- castles, gardens to beach, cliffs sea environments. Jack speech bubble writing PSED - explore feelings Use paint programme on laptops Castle writing
Weeks 2-3 23rd and 30th April Jack and the bean stalk	Growth and planting Non-fiction- bean diary Asking questions instructions Cress growing conditions Bean math's, adding, subtraction, doubling, halving Walk around our environment Leaf collections and sorting	Non fiction books, time, and change- bean diary Planting instruction writing Planting beans and seeds Pulse pictures Similarities and differences - growing conditions experiment, observations, leaf size, colours Time use ways of measuring time How we grow and change Bean dance Bean maths- using beans to add, subtract, double, halving and share, practical activities and exploration
Weeks 4 8th May Jack and the bean stalk	Garden Centre - designing Designing own seed packets(PEER CRITIQUE) and 3D plants Prices, money Instructions, Colour mixing shades petals	Design and make own seed packets and plants - imaginary names, adapt design to hold seeds, list info on back, prices. Instruction writing plants Poster designing Labeling items for sale, lists. Role play garden centre Shades of same colour, how many can we make? Money and coins, adding money.
Weeks 5 - 6 14th and 21st May Jack and the beanstalk	Outdoor learning Forest school, outdoor learning week- outdoor activities for week Measuring, ordering, sequencing 2D and 3D shapes Picnic ideas, recipes Parents in to see story telling, key activities.	Senses poems, 3D nature sculptures, imaginary story telling with natural objects, charcoal art, fire lighting, cooking on open fire, cloud images, climbing wall, Physical changes to body when doing activity. Measuring plants, beans Sequence events Patterns 2D and 3D shapes
	Half term
Week 1 4th June Hungry caterpillar	Hungry caterpillar story and Minibeast hunts Story telling and role play	Story telling Food lists and sentences Adding and subtracting foods laminated pictures Minibeast hunts, sorting, identifying, labeling, finding out about minibeasts, observing, noticing similarities and differences, tallies and recording observations. Minibeast percussion music Start butterfly egg hatching – observations, questions.
Weeks 2-3 11th and 18th June Hungry Caterpillar	Minibeast information Nonfiction book Life cycles Hatching butterflies Wormery, ant farm Bug hotel Clay minibeasts Minibeast pictures and labels on I pads	Make own group book about different types of minibeast x5 Life cycles- butterflies, frogs, chickens Observe ant farm and wormery. Notice similarities and differences Symmetry, patterns and shape Counting legs, e.g. ant and spider, doubling numbers 2 spiders, doubling spots on ladybirds.. Select and use technology for a purpose to complete a simple programme. Ladybird bingo and dominoes, Beetle drive game Minibeast dance Handling tools and materials effectively to create clay minibeasts.
Weeks 4-5 25th June and 2nd July Hungry caterpillar	Picnic preparation Invites(PEER CRITIQUE) Food preparation, designs and cooking Information for preschool children, resources.	Instruction writing, list writing Cooking- skills, tools, hygiene, eating healthy foods/diet Making biscuits, cakes, drinks, cheese straws Counting numbers picnic foods, plates, doubling, halving, real life maths problems Math's games and team games-lists, team work, cooperation, number recognition, counting. Start drafting pre-school invitations and posters
Week 6 9th July	Pre-school picnic transition Picnic with Stepping Stones Pre-school children host x3	Choosing and selecting minibeast activities to do with pre-school children 1:1 Communication and language -explaining their own knowledge,taking the role of teacher. PSED –making relationships, self confidence Preparing and hosting a picnic
Week 7 16th July	Transition to Year 1 Activities with Year 1 buddies	Team games with Year 1 buddies. Communication and language – listening and attention. PSED –making relationships, self confidence