Head Teacher: Mr Simon Pollard

Dear Parents/Carers

We are fully into Autumn and with the help of dark rain clouds it is getting darker when children walk to and from school. We really recommend they wear something reflective on their bags or coats.

As the days get shorter this is the perfect opportunity to spend time reading together and to celebrate books and stories. To help encourage this we are having a reading coffee morning on Thursday 20th October from 9 a.m. until 10 a.m. Children will need to be dropped in school as usual (for registration) and then parents will be able to come in at 9 a.m.

If you would like to provide some cake for the coffee and cake sale, then please drop this into the Office on the Wednesday before.

On the same day we will have the Harvest Festival (children only) and will be collecting donations for St Austell Foodbank.

This weekend is the London Marathon and Miranda Greer who works in the hall at lunchtime will be running. Keep a look out for her.

Thank you to everyone who has passed on their condolences best wishes to Sue Sloan, today (Friday 30th) is the funeral of her husband, Jim.

THE FRIENDS OF CARCLAZE

A huge thank you to all who attended the Friends AGM on Wednesday evening. It is always lovely to see lots of new faces that can bring new ideas to the committee.

At the meeting we had to re-elect the new committee, and a few have decided to step down but still be involved where they are able.

Stepping down this year is Kerry Gray who has been Secretary for many years and an invaluable asset to the Friends. Kerry has worked tirelessly over the years, supporting the other committee members and overseeing all the social media activity. We know that she still intends to help wherever she can and we look forward to seeing her.

Also stepping down is Cathy Higginson who was Vice Treasurer. Cathy did an amazing amount of work with applying for, and getting various grants to help with our fundraising as well as her role as supporting the Treasurer. Thank you for your valued support.

Debbie Cockayne has been Vice Secretary for a couple of years and has helped enormously with begging letters for prizes etc. and helped at many of our events over the years. Again Debbie wishes to continue to help out as and when she can and we look forward to seeing her.

Our Charity Trustees have agreed to carry on in their roles, namely:

Simon Pollard

Roxy Aitken

Kerry Gray

Our new committee is as follows:

|----------------|----------------|
| Chair | Tania Purdie |
| Vice Chair | Laura Yeo |
| Treasurer | Zoe Derriman |
| Vice Treasurer | Zoe Colliver |
| Secretary | Stef Bell |
| Vice Secretary | Chloe Thornton |

Upcoming events:

|----------------------|--|
| Date of next meeting | 5th October 7pm in the staff room - everyone welcome |
| Break the Rules Day | 21st October (more details to follow) |
| Christmas Fayre | 3rd December? (to be confirmed) |

Do we achieve more when there is competition?

In the news this week

The popular dance competition, Strictly Come Dancing, has returned to TV screens. The 20th series of the competition has the show's largest ever line-up of professional dancers. Fifteen celebrities are competing for the glitterball this year, including presenters Kym Marsh and Helen Skelton, former footballer Tony Adams, Paralympic gold medallist Ellie Simmonds, EastEnders actor James Bye and singer Matt Goss.

Things to talk about at home ...

- Share any competitions that you may have taken part in. Do you enjoy it when things are competitive? What about others at home?
- Do you prefer watching or taking part in competitions?
- Considering the phrase 'it's the taking part that counts' – what do you think it means and do you agree?
