Welcome and updates

Dear Parents and Carers,

We have arrived at the end of a very busy half term. I'm really not sure where the time has gone.

We have happy news to share—congratulations to Miss Clemes and her partner Andrew Butler on the birth (13th October) of their son—Ellis Reuben Butler.

We are sad to lose Mr Lawer who has a new job working for the Sunday Independent. We will miss you Mr Lawer—congratulations and good luck for the future.

We hope everyone has a super half term break. Don't forget the children don't return until Wednesday 30th October.

We are excited to announce that we have decided to turn November into a celebration of reading. We will be doing lots to promote the joy of reading beginning with a visit by author Ross Montgomery on 4th November. We even have a slogan for the month:

"Remember, Remember to read in November."

We will also run an extreme reading competition. I'm letting you know now so that you can take pictures during half term and get ahead of the game! Please email pictures to secretary@carclazesch.org

Looking forward to seeing everyone after the break.

Best wishes

Simon Pollard
Head Teacher

School Meals

Please remember to book your child's school lunches via ParentPay (whether they are free school meals or not) before the Sunday evening deadline. If you forget to book, your child can have a jacket potato but will not get the choice they want. This is so the cook knows what to order/prepare for the week ahead. Alternatively you can provide a packed lunch for them. Thank you.
