Head Teacher: Mr Simon Pollard

Dear Parent / Carers

Welcome back! It has been fantastic to see all the children settle quickly into their new classes this week. We are really looking forward to a full year of learning.

Don't forget children no longer have to isolate if they are in close contact with someone who has Covid-19. However, they should not come to school if they have symptoms or are positive themselves.

Reading remains central to our purpose, and we have lots planned to develop reading for pleasure as well as the teaching of reading.

Wednesday 8th September we are celebrating the Reading Hour as part of International Literacy Day. The idea originates from Finland, and we are encouraging everyone to read for an hour. Perhaps, half an hour in school and half an hour at home?

On Tuesday 14th September we will be introducing our Patron of Reading, Ross Montgomery. he will spend the day in school with readings and activities for all Year groups. There will be a book signing at the end of the day.

I hope you have a good weekend, and happy reading.

Best wishes
Simon Pollard

What's going on this week?

Over the past two weeks the Paralympics have taken place in Tokyo, following the postponed 2020 Olympics. The event has featured athletes with disabilities competing in 539 events, across 22 different sports. Ahead of the games, ParalympicsGB launched a campaign to make disabled people Impossible to Ignore. The initiative was developed after research showed Paralympic athletes are key to challenging perceptions of disability in the UK.

Things to talk about at home...

- 🌱 Have you been watching the Paralympic games? If so, what have been your highlights?
- 🌱 What do you think the ParalympicsGB's campaign slogan 'Impossible to Ignore' means?
- 🌱 Talk about why you think it's important to make everyone feel included in all areas of life.
