Welcome and updates

Dear Parents and Carers,

Welcome back. It has been a good start to the second half of the Autumn Term. It is not long now until the Torchlight Carnival. Mrs Dingle-Wood and Mrs Jago are leading the making of lanterns with Year 3.

If you would like to come along with your children on Tuesday after school next week then you are welcome to help make lanterns with craft club. Please let the office know if you want to join.

On Monday we will be visited by award winning children's author Ross Montgomery. The Friends have very kindly offered to cover the cost of this visit so there will be no charge. There will be an opportunity to buy copies of his books after school. This visit marks the start of our reading for pleasure month.

Best wishes

Simon Pollard
Head Teacher

Garden News Update 1 November 2019

Although the seasons are changing and there is plenty of wet weather around, we are still planning on doing a few garden jobs over the winter. If you can lend your time at any point, we are aiming to carry on with the Friday gardening club from 8th November at 3.10pm (meet outside reception by the round flower bed). One of the projects that we have in the pipeline is to improve the fenced garden near the school reception.

Edible St Austell have donated 3 fruit trees which we aim to plant in this area. We will need raised beds to plant them in.

If anyone has any wood, tools, knowhow etc please make yourselves known to the office! We might be able to create vegetable beds in here too and create a community area where people can help themselves to fruit and vegetables. Let us know if you have any thoughts for this area.

Kind Regards,

Helen Knight & Jo Plester

Care Communicate Persevere and Sparkle

11th September 2019

RE: ATTENDANCE PROCEDURES AND EXPECTATIONS

Dear Parent/Carer

Here at Carclaze Community Primary School, we recognise that there are occasions when it is appropriate to authorise an absence, such as when a pupil is genuinely too ill to attend school, has a medical appointment that cannot be taken outside of school hours or a request for leave has been agreed in exceptional circumstances.

However, the Government does not support parents taking children out of school unless the school agrees this is appropriate under 'exceptional circumstances'. Any request for leave should be made in writing to the Head Teacher using the school's request form at least 14 days prior to the proposed date of absence.

If you decide to still take your child out of school, without permission, you will be committing an offence under the Education Act 1996. We may refer the matter to Cornwall Council who may decide to take legal action against you. A penalty notice can be issued under Section 444A and 444B of the Education Act 1996. This carries a fine of £60 if paid within 21 days or £120 if paid after this but within 28 days. Penalty Notice fines are issued per parent/carer, per child. Failure to pay the penalty notice may result in Court action. Persistent absences not authorised by the school may result in a prosecution in the Magistrates Court, leading to fines up to £2,500 and/or custodial sentences *. The Council may also apply for the costs incurred in taking the matter to Court.

You are welcome to contact the school to discuss any concerns you may have regarding this or if you feel you would like advice or support in helping your child attend more regularly. Carclaze Community Primary School is committed to maximising the education of all its pupils and aims to work with parents to ensure this can be achieved.

Yours sincerely

Mr Simon Pollard
Head Teacher

* For an offence under the Education Act 1996 Sec 444 (1) the maximum fine is £1000. For an offence under the Education Act 1996 Sec 444 (1A) the maximum fine is £2500 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months. Alternatively, a penalty notice may be issued under Section 444A and 444B of the Education Act 1996. This carries a fine of £60 if paid within 21 days or £120 if paid after this but within 28 days. Failure to pay the penalty notice may result in Court action.

AVOIDABLE ABSENCE IN TERM TIME

IMPORTANT: Please read carefully the information below.

WARNING: If you allow your child to miss school in term time for an avoidable reason without obtaining the prior approval of the school, you may be issued with a Penalty Notice* per parent per child, or made the subject of court proceedings under section 444 Education Act 1996.

As a parent/carer, you can demonstrate your commitment to your child's education by not allowing your child to miss school for anything other than an exceptional and unavoidable reason.

THE FACTS	THE LAW
School aged pupils in Cornwall maintained schools are expected to attend punctually on the 190 days that the school is open. Whilst there are a number of unavoidable reasons why a pupil might be away from school (illness, medical appointments, exclusion etc.) the legislation is clear that any avoidable absence may only be authorised by a school if there are exceptional circumstances. WHAT YOU SHOULD CONSIDER Research suggests that children who are taken out of school may never catch up on the learning they have missed. This may affect test results and can be particularly harmful if the child is studying for final year examinations. Children who struggle with English or Mathematics may also find it even harder to cope when they return to school, while younger children may find it difficult to renew friendships with their classmates. If the school is unable to authorise the absence and the child is still taken out of school, this will be recorded as unauthorised absence and you may receive a £60* fine per parent per child.	The law allows the school to consider individual requests to authorise a future avoidable absence. However, before the school can authorise any such requests, they must satisfy themselves that there are exceptional circumstances which justify such a decision. It is entirely the responsibility of the parent submitting the request to provide sufficient evidence/information in order to establish this fact. The request for leave must come from the parent with whom the child normally resides. If a child then stays away from school for more than the authorised period this must be recorded as unauthorised absence and could be quoted in a prosecution for poor attendance. If the child is away for a period of four weeks or more, the school may have the option to take the child off roll subject to the Education (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations 2006. In case of unexpected extended absence, it is advisable that the parent fully informs the school as to the reasons. If a child is removed from roll, there is no guarantee that the child will regain a place at the school.
Unavoidable absence from school will be authorised. Examples include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Genuine illness Unavoidable medical/dental appointments (but try to make these after school if at all possible). Days of religious observance. Seeing a parent who is on leave from the armed forces External examinations When traveller children are on the road with their parents 	Other examples of absence from school that will not be authorised include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Any type of shopping Looking after siblings or unwell parents Minding the house Birthdays Resting after a late night Relatives visiting or visiting relatives
The law requires parents to ensure their children receive an efficient full time education, and every minute of every day is important. Please help them not to miss any of this valuable time. We hope that when you have read this leaflet you will consider that your child's education is too important to allow them to miss school for avoidable reasons.

*Penalty notice - £60 if paid within 21 days increasing to £120 if paid after 21 days and before 28 days.
